

REACTATHON

Join us for Reactathon 2018

Reactathon is a week of events in San Francisco celebrating the React.js ecosystem. It is organized by Real World React. Below is a short description of all the events. Learn more at Reactathon.com

Conferences

With the absence of FB's React Conf for 2018, we are expanding our 1-day conference to a 3-day dual conference. Day 1: Single-track, single-day conference on Fundamentals (March 20). Days 2-3: Single-track, 2-day conference with more Advanced talks (March 21 - 22).

and many more

Workshops

Our workshops will send your engineers through a hyperloop of productivity. With workshops from the fundamentals to advanced, your engineers will learn in hours what our instructors have mastered over years. See the full list of workshops at Reactathon.com (coming soon). March 19, 20, & 23.

Hiring Mixer

Sponsor a table at the hiring mixer to meet the engineers interested in working for you.

Hackathon

Got an API that you'd like to show off? Have some challenges you want to issue to hackers? Join us as an API sponsor at our 2-day hackathon at GitHub's beautiful HQ in San Francisco. Free for hackers. March 24 - 25.
